Gana

Introduction: This village is 2 km away from Karamsad and 7 km away from Vallabh Vidhyanagar, there can be travelled by bus from Anand. It is believed that it is named Gaana after Ganai Mata. This village is straight without any lanes or corners. It is designed in such a way that it is easy to go from one bay to other. Shops are also in series. This village took much interest in 1930s in Satyagrah. To support the non co-operation moment, people left their properties and well to do homes and lived in the near border of Gayakwad. All the agricultural feed were robbed. Some of them faced much trouble living in open farms but did not pay taxes to british government. As a result were assaulted naked. Soul mates of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel and Vitthalbhai Patel were from this village. Industries: Majorly this land grows grains and tobacco. There are 2 factories of tobacco and small – big 11 shops. Religious Places: There are 2 different Patel Swaminarayan men & women. Then there is Ramji Temple, Kundalaja Mata, Mahadev Bhatikhatri Temple, Khodiyaar Mata, Parbadi, 2 hostels, Ganai Mata Temple, Temple of foot prints of Shriji Maharaj.

Isnav

Introduction: This village is located 21km away from Anand on state highway between Anand and Tarapur. Earlier it was at 1 km distance on the way to Sojitra. Tired of getting looted by Kaathis, people migrated near Piplav. As it is near Piplav town, its name has been derived from there and so Ishnav, it is a general perception. Actual residents of this village were only 2 brothers. Industries: Majorly agricultural ripe is tobacco. Some 10 small shops and casted called Vankars (Weavers) make kurtas, towels and cloths on hand twisting machines. Religious Places: Temples of Swaminarayan for males and females falling under Vadatal are made with the help of joint donation of 2 brothers Lakshmidas & Ishvarbhai. Temples of Phulbai mata & Vehrai Mata, Mahadev Temple and Mahadev's old shivalay on old route to Sojitra, Ganpati Temple as well as luxurious Hanumanji Temple are there where devotees from Sojitra, Ishnav and peeplav come for prayers. At the out skirts of village, there is a huge house of Patelvadi made by Shri Manibhai and Shri Dahyabhai, sons of Shri Bhailalbhai Shyamaldas Patel. Donation for main roads by concrete is given by Shri Arvindbhai Motibhai Patel. At the centre of huge out skirts, there is a statue of Sardar shri Vallabhbbhai.

Khambholaj

Introduction: This village is 17 km away from Anand railway station. From Anand railway station or Vadod station, bus service is available to travel. Approx. 20 times this bus facility is available during the day. It is believed that village is formed by Siddhraj Jaysingh. Folk tale is that those who are residing here, their ancestors were called and made settled here by Siddhraj Jaysingh from Adalaj. Industries: Main industry is of agriculture. Tobacco is also grown along with other grains. There are 14 tobacco factories. 1 family sells leather for their living, 1 construction wood seller, 25 small shops, Hyume pipe factory, Bidi manufacturing factory and an engineering workshop are there. Religious Places: There are 2 temples of Lalji Maharaj. Big temple of Hanumanji. Ramji temple, Ambaji mata temple, 2 shivalays, 2 free drinking water facilities and 2 patel boarding and 1 of baaraiya's. Patel boarding facilities are made by the beautiful co-operation of all villagers. There are 2-3 wooden plates that has something written on them but not clearly visible. It is believed to be the names of martyrs' who saved village from pirates. There is a dargah, mosque, American Methodist church alongside Roman Catholic Church where fair is organized on Diwali. This day is believed the biggest to pray to holy mother merry. Thousands of catholic followers from all over Gujarat gather there to pray to mother merry in that fair. Also there is a freedom military's church.
